

Good morning,

I am alarmed by many of the proposed new ownership rules for television. Please retain the current laws. I do not feel that the repercussions of changes in the ownership rules have been studied enough, and these changes will have large permanent effects on the broadcast market and content.

Best,
Grayson Calhoun